Position Opening
Bilingual Organizing Fellow

Together Colorado is a statewide community organization representing 220 member congregations, clergy, faith leaders and mobile home parks throughout Colorado. Together Colorado's mission is to empower ordinary people to strengthen and transform their communities through community organizing.

Together Colorado has a strong learning culture including weekly staff development and supervision. We place a high priority on personal learning, relationship building and creating a respectful multi-racial, multi-faith and multilingual organization.

Together Colorado is seeking an Organizing Fellow to train and develop community leaders in congregations and other institutions to build power toward transforming systems and advancing Together Colorado's human dignity agenda. This is a six month temporary position with the possibility of becoming a full-time permanent position. Organizing Fellows should expect frequent nights and some weekend work.

A candidate who is well suited for this role has the following characteristics:

- Able to act with integrity and has a strong work ethic, "grit," and willingness to persevere until you succeed.
- A self-starter who can independently set goals and use them to guide daily actions.
- A good listener and capable of establishing rapport with people from different backgrounds.
- A quick learner and eager to develop their leadership and to help others to do the same.
- Open to evaluation and direction from their supervisors and peers.
- Unafraid of being pushed and challenged by their peers and supervisor to more deeply reflect on and address personal barriers to leadership development.
- Can navigate different cultural settings to relate to people across race, class, geography, age, and religion.

Responsibilities include:

- Organize in congregations. Conduct one-on-one relational meetings every week with congregants and community members
- Train and develop community leaders from member institutions to act in the public arena
- Work with faith and community leaders to support social justice in their institutions
- Participate fully in Together Colorado's civic engagement work
- Participate fully in building Together Colorado's anti-racism work
- Help to create and use a racial justice lens for policy and organizing work

- Complete other community organizing assignments as time permits

Qualifications:

- A Bachelor's degree or equivalent work experience is preferred but persons meeting the skills listed should still apply
- Bilingual in English and Spanish
- Ability to use a range of computer programs and smartphone apps, including Microsoft Office, Internet applications, and other common software
- Strong interpersonal and relational skills and interest in people
- Discipline and ability to work effectively in a highly unstructured environment
- Desire to learn and openness to challenge
- Use of a car during working hours
- Ability to work evenings and some weekend hours

Desired but not required:

- Experience in union, social justice or congregation-based community organizing

Salary & Benefits:

$55,000 annual salary prorated for the six month term

Stipend to cover a portion of the health insurance benefits

Application Deadline: Open until filled

Applications: Submit resume and cover letter to meghan@togetherco.org

In your cover letter, please answer the following questions:

1. Why are you interested in applying to be a community organizer fellow?
2. Share an example of achieving a success when a straightforward solution wasn't available.

Top candidates will be asked to demonstrate skills and commitment through an intensive screening process including role-plays and interviews with community leaders.

Together Colorado is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer.
